4. Abdul Muttalib:
    a. His name was "Shaibah" because of the grey hair with which he was born.
    b. He got his name when his uncle Muttalib bin Abd Manaf brought him back to Makkah from Yathrib and people thought that he was the slave of Muttalib.
    c. He had a great personality.
    d. Amir bin Harith Jurhami had hid the zamzam well with the precious gifts of Ka'bah and the stone of Rukn-e-Yamani.
    e. Dream of Abdul Muttalib regarding zamzam:
        i. First day the man said to him اِحْفِرْ بَرَّةَ
        ii. Second day the man said to him اِحْفِرْ الْمَضْنُوْنَةَ
        iii. Third day the man said to him اِحْفِرْ طَيْبَةَ
        iv. Fourth day, he said اِحْفِرْ زَمْزَمَ
        v. The place was between the idols of Isaf and Nailah.
        vi. At this time only the eldest son, al-Harith was alive and this was the time when he took an oath that if Allah would give him 10 sons, he would sacrifice one.
        vii. Quraish wanted to have a share in the well after its discovery, but Abdul Muttalib refused and they decided to resolve the dispute through a soothsayer of Banu Sa'd Hudhaim living in a place near Syrian border. On their way, their water resource ended and they end up digging their graves waiting for death. Then for the last time they decided to search for water and a spring of water gushed forth under the camel of Abdul Muttalib and they considered it to be a divine sign and gave the authority to Abdul Muttalib.
    f. When he had ten sons, he drew lots between his sons in front of Hubal and it was Abdullah whom he had to sacrifice. Quraish resisted him and asked him to try an alternate. They were given a way out by a priestess and he ultimately had to sacrifice 100 camels to save Abdullah. This is why the Prophet ﷺ is known as "Ibnu-Dhabeehain".
    g. The incident of Elephants:
        i. In 525AD, because of the Himyari oppression in Yemen, the Christian kingdom of Ethiopia sent an army to invade Yemen.
        ii. Once Abraha got control of Yemen, he decided to build a church in San'a, Yemen, called Ekklesia (by Greeks) or al-Qalees/al-Qulais. It was built in order to compete with Ka'bah and taking control of trade routes of Arabs and convert people to Christianity. It is said to have been built somewhere between 527CE-late 560sCE. It was destroyed in 634CE in the caliphate of Umar ibn al-Khattab.
        iii. But Led an army of sixty thousand and thirteen elephants in order to destroy Ka'bah.
        iv. He faced opposition from some of the Arab Yemeni leaders, but they couldn't resist him.
        v. When he reached Ta'if, the people Thaqeef, in order to save their places of worship, offered him help and a slave named Abu Rughaal was sent to guide Abraha to Makkah. But Abu Rughaal died on the way. His grave is known and stoned by the people to this day.

vi. Another guy from the army was sent forward and they were able to catch 200 camels of Abdul Muttalib who are grazing outside Makkah.

vii. Abdul Muttalib went to talk to Abraha and requested that his camels be returned to him. On this, Abraha, who was initially impressed by the looks of Abdul Muttalib, got upset as he expected Abdul Muttalib to talk regarding Ka'bah instead of his camels. When he expressed this concern to Abdul Muttalib, Abdul Muttalib responded by saying:

"I am the lord of these camels. And this house (Ka'bah) has a Lord who will protect it."

viii. The camels were returned to Abdul Muttalib and he returned to Makkah and informed Quraish of the situation and asked them to seek refuge in the mountains.

ix. But when Abraha asked the army to load their arms and march to attack, when camping at the Muhasir valley, the elephants refused to budge. This is when the birds were sent with baked clay who pelted them with stones. Many died, but not all and Abraha escaped, only to die a painful death at San'a because of an infection he had developed.

Lessons learnt from the story of Elephants:

1. The sanctity of Ka'bah should not be violated. Also, keep in mind that the sanctity of a Muslim is more than that of Ka'bah.

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ، قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَطُوفُ بِالْكَعْبَةِ وَيَقُولُ " مَا أَطْيَبَكِ وَأَطْيَبَ رِيحَكِ مَا أَعْظَمَكِ وَأَعْظَمَ حُرْمَتَكِ وَالَّذِي نَفْسُ مُحَمَّدٍ بِيَدِهِ لَحُرْمَةُ الْمُؤْمِنِ أَعْظَمُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ حُرْمَةً مِنْكِ مَالِهِ وَدَمِهِ وَأَنْ نَظُنَّ بِهِ إِلاَّ خَيْرًا

It was narrated that 'Abdullah bin Umar said:

"I saw the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) circumambulating the Ka'bah and saying: 'How good you are and how good your fragrance; how great you are and how great your sanctity. By the One in Whose Hand is the soul of Muhammad, the sanctity of the believer is greater before Allah than your sanctity, his blood and his wealth, and to think anything but good of him.'"

(Sunan Ibn-e-Majah: 3932: Saheeh li-Gharihi (correct narration because of other evidences)

5. Abdullah bin Abdul Muttalib:
    - a. He was the youngest from his wife Fatimah bint Amr, but not the youngest as Hamzah and Abbas were younger than him.
    - b. He was married to Aminah bint Wahb. She also died young, some say younger than thirty years.
    - c. Died on his way back from a trade journey to Syria in Yathrib and is buried in dar-un-Nabighah along with his uncles of Banu Adi ibn an-Najjar.
    - d. The age at which he died is disputed, however, it is agreed that he died at a young age and the age of 25 is known to be the most accurate of them.
